TOWN COUNCIL HOST HOWITT CHOIR

Heanor and Loscoe Town Council had hoped to run a Junior Talent Competition on Saturday 22nd November. At the last minute a number of acts withdrew, making a contest very difficult.

In order to avoid disappointing the Howitt School Choir (Howitt Primary Community School) the Town Council decided to offer a free concert for them at Heanor Town Hall.

At 6pm on Saturday 22nd November the Deputy Mayor Councillor Bob Janes welcomed and introduced the choir to a large enthusiastic audience of families and friends. The choir sang wonderfully. The Mayor Councillor Harry Soar presented each choir member with a signed certificate and Tesco gave presentation boxes to the young entertainers. After the performance mince pies and teas were served to all. What could have been a great disappointment became a happy and successful evening.

NEW COUNCILLOR

At the meeting of the Town Council held on Thursday 6th November 2008 members resolved to co-opt Miss Sheila Oakes of Gladstone Street, Heanor to fill the Councillor Vacancy created on the resignation of Councillor Warner.
