Christmas Switch On

This year's Annual Christmas lights 'Switch On' was held on Monday 1st December 2014. The event took place on Heanor Market Place and the Christmas lights were switched on by Town Mayor Mrs Heather Longdon. The lights this year have been extended along the High Street and now include Ray Street, The Old Fire Station and The Wilmot Street Centre. The weather was mild and helped to make this another very successful evening enjoyed by many people young, and old alike.

This pantomime was a free event, provided by the Town Council and available to residents of Heanor and Loscoe. The pantomime, year on year, proves to be very popular and this year it was performed to an audience of approximately 140 people.
