(Annual General Meeting)

Families need support for all sorts of reasons.

When Anne left work to go on maternity leave, she felt really isolated. Everybody else with babies seemed to know what they were doing. She suffered from post natal depression and found it really difficult to bond with baby Ashley. Rebecca helped her see that she wasn't the only one to feel overwhelmed.

Rebecca is a Home-Start trained parent volunteer
Could YOU have helped build Anne's confidence as a parent?

Postnatal illness, isolation, being new to an area, multiple children, family stress...Home-Start supports families for lots of reasons.

If you have parenting experience, would like to volunteer to support a family with at least one child under 5 and could spare 2-3 hours per week, please contact Home-Start Amber Valley on 01773 857033.

Training courses held throughout the year. Expenses paid
All volunteers are subject to a CRB check

Home-Start – because every parent should have the support they need to give their children the best possible start in life.
