Woodland Festival - Red River Local Nature Reserve

On Sunday 25th March, a Woodland Festival was held at the Red River Local Nature Reserve in Loscoe, to celebrate the onset of British Summer time and the start of the longer hours of evening daylight.

The event designed for families with an interest in the environment featured a good mix of fun and environmental activities including a scavenger hunt, story-telling, nature quiz, face painting, tree dressing, chainsaw art and willow weaving.

The event which ran between 10.30am and 3.30 pm was organised by Groundwork Derby & Derbyshire and the Friends of Red River Group and was funded by Heanor and Loscoe Town Council with the support of a grant from Amber Valley Borough Council.

If anyone is interested in helping on the reserve or wishes to know more about the Red River Friends of Group, please contact Gary Wain on 07971 643036 or gwain@groundwork.org.uk.
