Christmas 2013

On the lead up to Christmas the Town Council held a number of FREE events for our residents.

The first of these was the 'Christmas Switch On' - this took place on Monday 2nd December 2013 with carol singing, puppet shows, fun fair, market stalls, Santa's Grotto and face painting. The weather was mild and the evening was a huge success with another fantastic fireworks display by Spyrotechnics of Chesterfield.

The second event was the Aladdin pantomime - a crowd in excess of 150 (both young and not so young) enjoyed the performance by Different Device Theatre Group in The Wilmot Street Centre.

The third and final event was a wreath making workshop held at our Red River Local Nature Reserve on Saturday 14th December - there was a slow but steady stream of visitors which enabled the artist to spend time advising and assisting most of the visitors in creating some really attractive wreaths
